Art Studio on the Boulevard

Naomi Smulian Mendel, owner and director of Art Studio on the Boulevard and Mad Hatter Arts Camp, has over 40 years of experience with art in the magical world of children and adults. She encourages spontaneity at the same time providing a solid basis in the fundamentals of art. Naomi is an artist, a teacher and a writer of both children's books and Love For Learning, a series of curriculums for schools and daycare centers. Originally from Israel, she received her first degree in Fine Arts and completed graduate courses from the Ecole des Beaux-Arts and Academie de la Grande Chaumiere of Paris, France. She also earned a teaching certificate in Education. She has taught and exhibited in the United States, Venezuela, Colombia, Israel, England, France and Trinidad.

The Arts Studio on the Boulevard has been a part of the Heights' family for nearly twenty years. In that time our classes and camps have brought the world of art to thousands of children and adults. We love what we do!
